"For it is in giving that we receive." — Francis of Assisi

The Battle of the Bulge — the 75 years ago major battle, in the winter of 1944 — in Belgium's Ardennes Forest that extends into France and Germany. It was a bitter month-long battle and cost many lives. Some historians call it the biggest and costliest battle in the history of warfare. Hitler put it all in one basket in an effort to turn the tide of WWII but it was a drastically failed attempt. It involved over one million troops — 500,000 Americans, 55,000 British and 600,000 Germans. Each side lost 800 tanks and the Germans lost 1,000 aircraft. 19,000 American troops died, 47,500 were wounded and 23,000 were missing in action. The Germans lost an estimated 100,000 troops. It is humbling to recall the story from Christmas Eve there in the Ardennes. There was a lull in the fighting and as the American soldiers began singing 'Silent Night', the German troops joined with the original composition of that song 'Stille Nacht', and not the translated Silent Night. However, if you hear the tune, you will immediately know the song and can easily join in the much translated tune with the others, regardless of your native language. Tragically, the war resumed all too soon.

The word came out from state officials Tuesday morning that Elba High School sports teams are being kicked back up to Class 2A. That classification will hold for the next two years. The same realignment kicked New Brockton up to Class 3A. Classifications are based on average number of students attending classes. All this puts these two teams in new regions. These regions are made up of other like classified schools and each team in that region is expected to play a certain number of others in their region. Elba will have the latitude to play some traditional rivals, regardless of class and region, but they will see some changes in alignments.

Last week we opined about the uproar in Houston County over the teacher texting scandal. The matter was officially decided by the school board and the teachers involved received a suspension without pay and will be going back to work in their original positions. While we don't know all of the ins-and-out of the matter, this was probably the best solution but as expected not everyone was happy. The families of some of the students mentioned in the teacher's texting wanted blood. Others felt that if the teachers were not going to be fired, they should have at least been transferred to another school. Our thoughts on this last option was the texting issue will follow them for several years, where ever they are teaching and it is time for everyone to move forward and hope those teachers and millions of other cell phone users will finally learn that their cell phone is not, we repeat not, a private chat room but is subject to scrutiny by the world. There is nothing one can do about it but grit their teeth and hope any embarrassing things that come out of one of these phones (any one that was in on the sending or receiving of the messages) will blow over and soon.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Blessings come in many forms. In one way or another people's lives can be touched making it a little easier and a little happier. In this case it happens to be a person. Some refer to her as Granny or Mama, but to many she is known as Ms. G, the spunky white-haired cashier at Mr. Henry's.

Little did I know when I hired Geneva Simpson how many lives she would touch including mine!

I truly believe there isn't a customer or a co-worker that could say differently. These people that stop and shop with us are not just customers to Ms. G, her co-workers aren't just people she works with but are her friends and her extended family.

I have heard her compliment one after another on a new hair cut or an outfit

(even if it wasn't exactly the best). She's told many how beautiful or how handsome they look. She's congratulated young men on their new job. She sure doesn't forget the little ones either. "Granny loves you!" she says as they turn to leave.

I've seen her hug and I've heard her pray with customers struggling, hurting, displaced from a hurricane or mourn the loss of a loved one.

She greets each on as they come in and bids them safe travel on their way out.

I've seen her cry at the passing of Officer Duke and us as a work family with her at the passing of her grandson, Cody.

She has been a blessing to her company, her co-workers and the residents of Elba. If ever there was an angel walking on earth it would be Ms. G. I strive to be like Ms. G, the most Christ like woman I have ever had the pleasure to have in my life.

At the end of December, the spunky white-haired cashier that many have grown to love, will enter into retirement. She will be rightfully spending time with her husband, Bob.

She will be missed by many. I will miss working with her, seeing her smile and hearing her say, "Good ends meet!" And, yes there is a story to that too. I will miss her hugs and always remember how she tooted my horn just because she said I wouldn't toot it myself.

We are not saying goodbye, but only – "God speed, Mrs. G!"

To all whose lives she has touched in one way or another could you take a second or two to stop by Mr. Henry's and bid her farewell and good tidings?

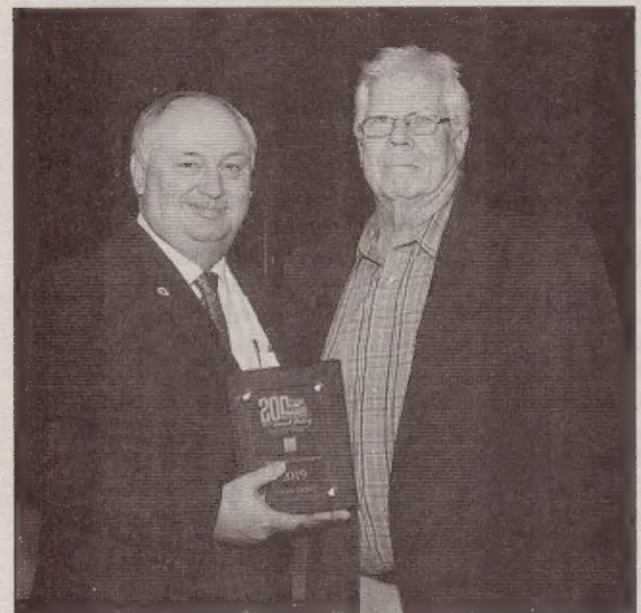

Thank you, Ms. G – we all love you!

Carrying on a Loved One's Legacy
Through Memory Boxes

When a loved one passes away, it often triggers a lot of conversation about who the person was, what they had done throughout their life, and how they will be remembered. Families want to preserve and pass along these memories to future generations. A wonderful way to do this and help grandchildren or others to feel more connected is to create personalized memory boxes.

Fill decorative boxes with meaningful items from the person's life. Perhaps they were known for their collection of ties, scarves, watches, or belts. Tuck one into each box that means something to the recipient – whether it was their favorite, it correlates with a memory they share, or is just one you think they'd appreciate. Everyone's box doesn't have to be the same – choose things you want them to remember their loved one by.

For instance, you may choose to return a gift they gave their grandparent when they were younger so it is something they can look back on fondly. You may also want to include items you can share the story behind and give them more insight into their loved one and why it represents them and their life.

If they had a business, you could write a personalized note on their stationary so grandkids can always remember a bit about their career. You could also write on an invoice slip or prescription pad – something to keep them connected.

These personalized boxes can help to keep their memory alive and make you feel good about passing along some keepsakes to younger generations so they can get to know their grandparent or ancestor in a different way. Let them know these items are theirs to keep, and you're happy to discuss them if they want to know more.

CHURCH NEWS

Pastor's Corner

BY PHILIP BOX, MINISTER
ELBA CHURCH OF CHRIST

The Great Gift!

The custom of giving gifts to family and friends at this time of the year is found worldwide. Expensive gifts were given to Jesus at His birth. These were given by a group of men that we call "Wise men".

We do not know how many men there were that brought these gifts, most people think that there were three wise men because there were three gifts that were given to the Christ.

"When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh." (Matthew 2:9-11)

Christmas giving seems to have started in Germany. Children were given gifts like fruit, nuts, coins, schoolbooks, writing material and Christian books. The Christmas tree also began in Germany as a place to keep the gifts until they were given.

God has given many gifts to mankind, especially His grace. (Ephesians 2:8-10) God's gifts are given often throughout every day.

Thank God for His precious gift of grace! Of all the gifts ever given none compares with God's gift to us that makes salvation possible. God made it possible for both Jews and Gentiles to be saved by faith; the faith that saves is like that of Abraham. Abraham's faith always obeyed.

"By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out into a place which he was afterward going to receive for an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he went." (Hebrews 11:8)

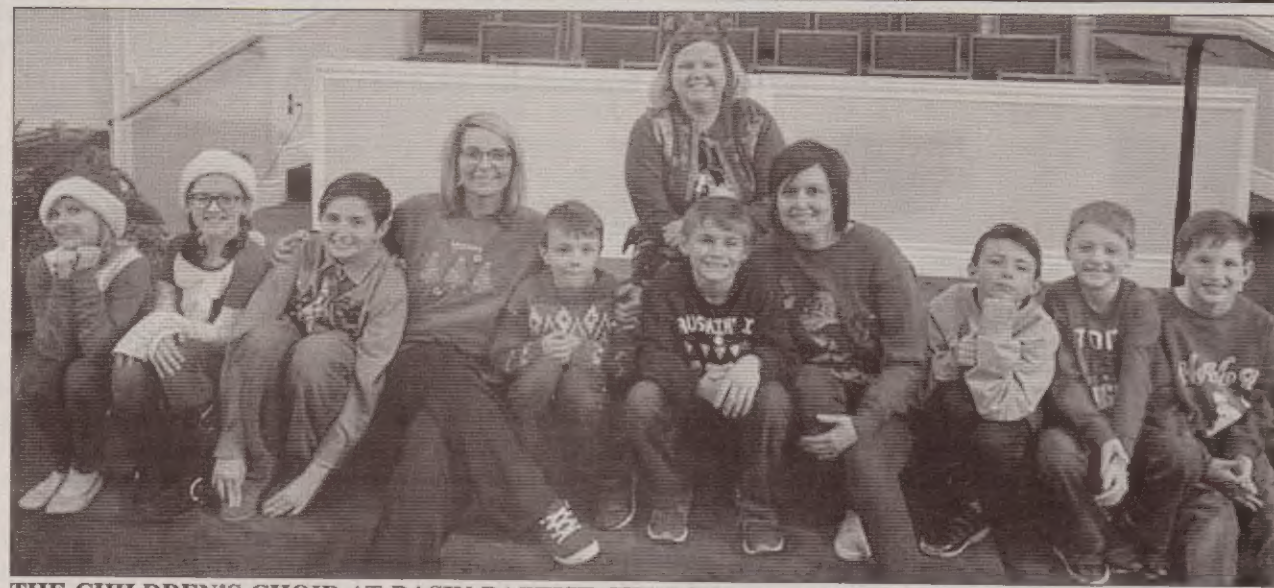

The promise of salvation to all men was made to Abraham long before the Jew's religion came into force. God's promise of salvation was not only to the Jews, but He promised blessings for the Gentiles as well. Of course this promise is that God made is a promise of Christ and of salvation through Him; this is the greatest gift anyone has received or could receive, Jesus Christ and salvation through Him!

This is the marvelous gift of God's grace. The greatest gift ever!

Our grandson Lawson is in the third grade, and when we asked him about giving presents to his teachers he shouted "yes" and said he would need twelve gifts. I'm not really sure who will get gifts from our kind hearted little grandson, but there is no doubt he loves to share and make others happy.

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers saw their record move to 1-1 in early-season play with a wild 84-74 loss to Geneva. The Tigers ran up and down the court for all four quarters and didn't stop until the final horn sounded in the fourth quarter, but missed twelve free throws and many times failed to get back to stop some easy fast break baskets by Geneva. Elba is still working out the kinks after a late start to the season, but showed last week that it could score points in bunches and will be an exciting team to watch.

 The Elba Lady Tigers saw their three-game winning streak snapped last week with a pair of lopsided losses to Geneva County and Geneva. The Lady Tigers struggled in both games to create havoc with their aggressive style of defense and surrendered over sixty points in both games, while the offense never really got in sync and the results were two big losses. The Lady Tigers still have a chance to be a solid 1A club and could be a state tourney contender, but must improve in every area and work hard every day in practice if that goal can be reached.

 It was an exciting week of basketball action all across the area as New Brockton out an end to its 28-game losing streak and Kinston handed Coach Karl Bledsoe his first win at the head coach of the Bulldogs.

In boys action, New Brockton surprised Samson in a two-point win that ended its 28-game losing streak and gave the Gamecocks a shot of confidence that they can win any time they take the court, while Kinston overcame a season filled with struggles with a solid win over red Level, as the Bulldogs finally put everything together and hopefully gave their fans a preview of things to come. Zion Chapel competed in a holiday tourney in Rehobeth and got roughed up in all three games, but did gain valuable experience against much bigger schools, and Brantley continued to light it up in early-season play as the Bulldogs won their own holiday event.

In girls action, Kinston and Brantley continued on their collision course in the area as both teams continued to play well and improve, while New Brockton and Zion Chapel both had rough weeks in tournaments, but did gain experience that should pay dividends on down the road as the season continues.

 In closing... my family has been so blessed this year in all phases of our lives and while I know others have faced terrible struggles and losses, this is the time to look ahead and give thanks to our Lord and Savior.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Tigers outscored by Geneva 84-74

The Elba Tigers fell behind late in the opening quarter and never recovered last week in a high scoring 84-74 road loss to the Geneva Panthers.

The Tigers jumped out to an early 2-0 lead on an acrobatic layup by Seth Ware and ere on top 13-8 with 2:51 left in the first quarter after a driving layup by Collin Harrison, but saw Geneva score the next eight points of the quarter to go on top 16-13 and heading into the second quarter the Panthers were still on top 22-20.

Geneva stretched its lead to 30-20 early in the second quarter and appeared ready to blow the Tigers out of the gym, but Elba rallied behind the play of Chrystyle Caldwell and cut the deficit to 34-28 with 3:37 left in the stanza after a long 3-pointer by Seth Ware. Elba got as close as 38-33 with 1:06 left on a 3-pointer by Dylan Caldwell, but Geneva refused to let the Tigers get any closer and carried a 40-35 lead in at the half.

Elba pulled within 40-37 early in the second quarter on a basket by Collin Harrison, but the Panthers scored the next five points of the quarter to up their lead to 45-37 and took their biggest lead of the quarter at 53-41 with 3:52 remaining after an 8-0 run. Elba came back battling after a time out and behind the play of Chrystyle Caldwell and Seth Ware went on a 6-0 run to pull within 53-47, only to see Geneva add a three-point play late to carry a 56-47 lead into the final stanza.

The two teams got into a running contest early in the fourth quarter and both teams had little trouble finding their way to the basket as Geneva sprinted its way to a 71-55 lead with 4:21 still left on the clock. A 3-pointer by John Martin Wilson sparked a late Elba rally and Chrystyle Caldwell dominated inside until the final horn, but it was too little, too late, as the Panthers easily held on to claim the 84-74 win.

Chrystyle Caldwell scored 24 points and Seth Ware added 18 to lead, while Trevon Kemmerlin led Geneva with 23 points.

Geneva (84): Kemmerlin 23, Johnson 18, McReynolds 12, Creech 10, D. Kemmerlin 7, King 7, Perry 3, Lawson 4.

Elba (74): Ware 18, Caldwell 24, Harrison 11, Wilson 12, Lane 6, D. Caldwell 3.

(JV Game)

The Elba Tigers fell behind big early and saw a late rally fall far short in a 44-33 loss to the Geneva Panthers. The Tigers trailed 16-3 after the first quarter and while they did cut the lead to three points the third quarter, they could get no closer and suffered the loss.

Malachi Washington scored 8 points to lead Elba, while Garner led Geneva with 12 points.

Geneva (44): Brannon 2, Johnson 2, Spann 7, Garner 12, Barton 8, Adams 3, Fulford 2, Griffin 6, Brothers 2.

Elba (33): Washington 8, Thomas 4, Hamilton 2, Hill 6, Peterson 3, Mereck 6, Daniels 4.

In the 'Girls' standings, Eufaula is ranked 2nd in Class 5A, Charles Henderson is ranked 2nd in Class 4A, Geneva County is ranked 2nd and G.W. long is ranked 6th in Class 2A, and Pleasant Home is ranked 7th in Class 1A.

Record slips to 4-3

Lady Tigers stumble with two road losses

The Elba Lady Tigers saw their early-season success hit a bump in the road last week as they lost to Geneva County 66-40 in the finals of the Geneva County/ESCC tournament and then dropped a 64-31 decision to the Geneva Panthers in regular season action.

Following are highlights of both games:

Geneva Co. 66 Elba 40

The Elba Lady Tigers and Geneva County Lady Bulldogs met last week as the final two undefeated teams in the three-day Geneva County/ESCC Basketball Tournament, and the Lady Tigers found out first hand just why the Lady Bulldogs were ranked #2 in the state in Class 2A, as the Lady Tigers suffered a lopsided 66-40 loss.

Elba held its own early and was tied at 4-4 with 6:22 left in the first quarter after a pair of free throws by Jaylin Baker, but the Lady Bulldogs scored four straight points to stretch their lead to 8-4, and despite 3-pointers by Elba's Nina Williams and Danaejah Flowers, Geneva County carried a 16-10 lead into the second stanza.

The Lady Tigers' Freeda Hooks scored early in the second quarter to cut the deficit to 16-12. However, the Lady Bulldogs quickly regained command and opened up a 22-12 lead with 4:13 left in the quarter after a 6-0 run. Elba's Undreya Chism drained a 3-pointer to end the Lady Tigers five-minute scoring drought and pull Elba within 22-15, but Geneva County never lost command and at the half was on top 33-16.

Elba hit six straight free throws early in the third quarter in an attempt to keep pace, but failed to score from the floor for over four minutes, and by the time Nina Williams hit a short jumper with 3:55 left in the stanza, the Lady Bulldogs had increased their lead to 45-26. Geneva County never slowed down on either end of the court throughout the stanza and poured in 25 points in the period to carry a 58-30 lead into the final quarter.

The Geneva County lead grew to 62-31 with 6:54 left, which resulted in a running clock, and while the Lady Tigers Undreya Elba Tiger Chrystyle Caldwell (22) gets inside for an easy basket. Caldwell scored 24 points last week in the Tigers 84-74 road loss to Geneva.

Chism and Celeste Edwards drained back to back 3-pointers, all it did was change the score as Geneva County easily held on for the 66-40 win.

Nina Williams scored 10 points to lead Geneva County, while Karoline Striplin led the Lady Panthers with 31 points.

G.C. (66): Alston 6, Boutwell 6, Williams 4, Davis 14, Lamb 5, Striplin 31.

Elba (40): Baker 6, N. Williams 10, Chism 9, M. Williams 2, Flowers 5, Edwards 5, Hooks 2.

Geneva 64 Elba 31

The Elba Lady Tigers saw an early 8-7 lead vanish in a 64-31 road loss to the Geneva Lady Panthers.

Elba came out determined to rebound from an early week loss and moved ahead 8-7 with 2:38 left in the first quarter on a steal and layup by Freeda Hooks. However, Geneva went on a 16-0 run over the game's next six minutes and was on top 23-8 before the Lady Tigers Nina Williams ended the run with a basket with 3:41 remaining in the half.

The Lady Panthers opened up a big 28-10 lead with 2:07 still left on the clock, and despite the play of Lady Tiger Nina Williams, the Lady Panthers never lost command and carried a 32-14 lead in at the half.

Elba's Jaylin Baker hit a short jumper and Breana Sanders drained a 3-pointer to help cut the deficit to 37-21 with 4:53 left in the third quarter, but Geneva closed the quarter with a 12-0 run to carry a 55-26 lead into the final stanza.

Geneva's lead grew to 58-28 with 7:01 remaining in the fourth quarter, and with a running clock the Lady Tigers never threatened to cut into the lead as they suffered the 64-31 road loss.

Nina Williams scored 8 points and Freeda Hooks added 7 for Elba, while Madison Johnson scored 19 points and Melody Watson added 14 for Geneva.

Geneva (64): Johnson 19, Boswell 10, T. Johnson 3, Simon 6, Kemmerlin 5, Minnifield 3, Lamb 4, Watson 14.

Elba (31): Baker 4, N. Williams 8, Chism 3, M. Williams 4, Sanders 3, Flowers 2, Hooks 7.

The Coffee County Board of Education met Thursday evening, Dec. 12, for the regular monthly board meeting, and a 30-minute plus executive session extended the meeting past an hour in length.

Board members said they had more than one matter to discuss in the lengthy executive session including a discussion on a possible real estate transaction, as well as, a disciplinary matter. No action was taken on the matters discussed after board members returned to the open meeting.

Upon the recommendation of superintendent Kevin Killingsworth, the board did approve three personnel matters during the meeting.

The resignation of Lisa Murphy, reading specialist at New Brockton Elementary was approved. Her resignation takes effect Dec. 31st.

Two leave matters were approved for bus drivers. Randy Hartley, a bus driver for Zion Chapel, was approved for catastrophic leave beginning Dec. 4th and continuing until he is cleared to return to work. Helena Johnson-Spikes, a bus driver for New Brockton, was approved for medical leave from Nov. 25th through Jan. 3rd tentatively.

Board members approved their regular meeting schedule for 2020 during last Thursday's meeting. Meeting will be at 5:30 p.m. unless otherwise noted.

The schedule is as follows: No meeting in January, Feb. 6th, March 5th, April 2nd, May 5th, June 4th, July 9th, Aug. 6th, Sept. 3rd, Oct. 1st, Nov. 5th, and Dec. 10th.

The board approved a recommendation from the superintendent to accept the surplus bids on two older model school buses that had been advertised for sale.

The board also approved a bond issuance with a company from Mobile for several capital improvement projects that have been extensively discussed in recent meetings.

Unless there is a special or called meeting in January, the board next will meet Thursday, Feb. 6, at 5:30 p.m.

Coffee County Environmental Services officials have announced that during the week of Christmas the normal Wednesday route will shift to Thursday (Dec. 26), and the Thursday route will shift to Friday (Dec. 27) with no pickups on Christmas Day, Dec. 25th.

The same shift will be utilized the week of New Year's also - Wednesday to Thursday and Thursday to Friday.

The Coffee County Landfill will be closed Christmas Day and New Year's Day.

ELBA ELEMENTARY CLASS CHOOSES TO GIVE RATHER THAN RECEIVE! Sasha O'Neal's first grade class at Elba Elementary School decided this holiday season to do something a little different for Christmas. Instead of exchanging gifts for their Christmas party, the students chose to have a "mitten tree" in the classroom. Each student was asked to bring a pair of mittens to hang on the tree, and the mittens will be donated to a local charity to help keep other children's hands warm this winter. Above, Mrs. O'Neal and her students are shown by their mitten tree filled with mittens for other children. As can be seen, the students were full of smiles as they did their part to help others this holiday season by giving rather than receiving.
